

*Alternative Education
 Resource Guide*

Eagle Academy	(303) 683-5708 9375 Cresthill Lane Highlands Ranch, CO 80126 www.dcsd.k12.co.us	An alternative night high school program offering classes Mon-Thursday from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Students must be 16+, required to work 25 hours per week, and have a minimum of 10 credits from their previous school to be eligible to apply at Eagle Academy. Run by Douglas County Schools.
Denver Street School	(303) 860-1702 1567 Marion St. Denver, CO 80218 www.denverstreetschool.org	A quality private high school that leads to a high school diploma. Two campuses available for metro Denver area and one campus in Colorado Springs also. A cost friendly school that is affordable for most families. Sports programs, drama clubs, and much more available. Contact Tom-founder for enrollment information.
Colorado Literacy Hotline	(303) 436-1600 1(800)-367-5555 http://www.gedonline.org	GED ONLINE—GED preparation on the internet! For $50.00 a student gets 4 months of GED preparation, practice testing online, opportunity to work at his/her own pace, and opportunity to chat with others who are studying the same subject matter. For further information and registration visit www.gedonline.org .
Colorado State Academy	(303) 425-1752 7506 W. 74 th Place Arvada, CO 80003	A unique private high school that is economically reasonable for families. Dropouts, expelled students, non-graduates, and at-risk youth are encouraged to call. Operated by a non-profit corporation. Teachers are fully certified by the State of Colorado.

Source: Mile High United Way-Directory on Disk, 2002-2003 and NGV resources at ADW.

Updated: 2/26/04