

Medical Assistant Registered Apprenticeship

Arapahoe/ Douglas Works! is pleased to support hiring efforts for a six-month Medical Assistant Apprenticeship program starting soon! If you've always wanted to explore working in health care – plan to attend one of our 3.5-hour information sessions to learn how becoming a Medical Assistant can transform your career outlook.

This exciting partnership between Metro Denver's Workforce Centers, Centura Health Physician Group and Arapahoe Community College offers paid, on-the-job training and accredited college coursework to help caring, service-oriented individuals pass the CCMA exam and gain the right experience to become a successful Medical Assistant. Upon completion, Centura Health will help graduates identify opportunities at its numerous medical clinic locations.

Medical Assistant employment outlook: Medical Assistants are in high-demand! The Bureau of Labor Statistics predicts the need will continue to rise by nearly 30% between now and 2026. In the Denver metro, Medical Assistants typically earn between $26,499 - $45,628 per year (depending on experience).

Successful candidates will be invited to interview with hiring managers from Centura Health.
