

Human Services resources during COVID-19 outbreak

You can access many services online www.arapahoegov.com

Food

Individuals and families may apply for the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program and get help with costs of purchasing food. This program is a supplement to a household's nutritional needs for the month. Once approved, food assistance benefits are issued to a Quest Card, which works like a debit card. To apply, visit Colorado PEAK: www.colorado.gov/PEAK

Additional Services

United Way Denver: 2-1-1

Colorado Hunger Free Hotline: 1-855-855-4626, Denver Metro 720-382-2920

Food Bank of the Rockies: 1-877-460-8504 or 303-371-9250

WIC Supplemental Nutrition for Families: Tri-County Health Department, 1-800-688-7777

For a list of food banks in your area visit: www.arapahoegov.com/1278/Food-Banks

Cash

Helping qualifying families with general emergency situations, and ongoing adult financial support, e.g. Aid to the Blind, Aid to the Needy Disabled, Home Care Allowance, Old Age Pension and more with temporary cash assistance. To apply, visit Colorado PEAK: www.colorado.gov/PEAK.

Medical

Health First Colorado – Colorado's Medicaid Program is free or low cost public health insurance for Coloradans who qualify and can cover doctor visits, emergency care, preventative care such as screenings and immunizations and other procedures and treatments. To apply, visit Colorado PEAK: www.colorado.gov/PEAK or call 1-800-221-3943.

Colorado.gov/PEAK
COLORADO
PEAKTM

Apply for medical, food, cash assistance as well as child care help and more online.

You can check your application status, find food and cash balance information, upload documents, report changes, print medical cards and more online.