

Interviewing Tips and Mock Interviews with Disability Solutions

Employers across the country are starting to embrace diversity and inclusion in the workplace as Americans with disabilities are experiencing employment gains.

While labor conditions have improved for individuals and veterans with disabilities, many others continue to struggle to find employment due to lack of preparation and not having the required skills needed to successfully navigate the hiring process.

Join this webinar to learn the following and find your dream career:

- What employers need jobseekers to know
- Soft skills to impress in the hiring process
- Application and interview preparation tips
- Opportunity to mock interview with Disability Solutions
